

Guarantee Games Database – Fact Sheet

Win AD's Guarantee Games database: Comprehensive database of 8,500+ D-I guarantee game contracts for men's and women's basketball and football.

We built the Guarantee Games database to instantly and continuously tell ADs the market rate for key match ups and provide enhanced negotiating leverage for home and away game scheduling.

What are SEC programs paying Sun Belt programs in football?

What is the standard ticket allocation for D-I men's basketball games?

Are our cancellation fees on par with conference peers?

Which schools should I target to maximize revenue for road football games?

What are market rates for games being scheduled in 2018 and beyond?

Win AD's Guarantee Games database is designed for any AD who wants to optimize contract negotiations and guaranteed payment amounts to meet budget planning mandates and maximize fiscal discipline over the long-term.

"Win AD has paid for itself many times over while negotiating numerous guarantee game contracts."
